

It is extremely obvious to me that allowing ownership of multiple (and in this case all) media outlets in any given market to be owned by a single individual or corporation is highly inappropriate. The potential for abuse is enormous.

Please don't cower to corporate power and wimp out on this.

Respect my opinion and those of the American public and do not allow for this power play.

Do not change the rules!